Bio

With over two decades of experience, Deckard has been crafting unforgettable musical experiences since 2000. Known for his ability to read a room and create the perfect atmosphere, he's the trusted choice for corporate events, executive gatherings, and high-end private celebrations. Whether curating a smooth progression from cocktail hour to a packed dance floor or tailoring music to reflect a client's vision, Deckard ensures every event has the right soundtrack.

Drawing from his extensive background performing in night and social clubs as well as festivals in major cities including San Francisco Bay Area, Sao Paulo, New York City, Seattle, Los Angeles and many more. He blends genres with ease—downtempo lounge, house, indie, funk and soul remixes—adapting his style to fit the energy and expectations of each occasion. His clientele includes leading venture capital firms and high-profile private hosts who rely on his professionalism, discretion, and unmatched ability to set the vibe.
